USA 2024 – Heartbeat of a Divided Nation

A profoundly divided nation – that's what America looks like in election year 2024. The contrasts between rich and poor, between rural areas and urban centers have become ever more acute in recent years. Amid heightened tensions, violence is increasingly replacing the culture of debate. The film tracks the heartbeat of US society over several months during the presidential election campaign, observing the everyday lives of very different people, their dreams and fears. How does America think and feel?

TRANSFORMING BUSINESS

Fighting Overtourism?

The world recorded over a billion tourists in 2023, almost hitting pre-pandemic levels, but this comes at a cost. Popular destinations like the Spanish island of Mallorca or the Mexican resort of Cancún are being swamped by ever increasing numbers of visitors. Soaring rents and rising property prices put many locals at a disadvantage. Local water supplies are often overburdened and there are other environmental issues such as beach erosion and destruction of local habitats. In contrast, Costa Rica is praised as a pioneer of sustainable tourism in Latin America. But does it live up to its image? Transforming Business wants to know whether sustainable mass tourism is possible.
